

LARA AZUL

ARTIST

PAINTING, SCULPTURE, AND INSTALLATION

web: leratoshadi.art

e-mail: studio@leratoshadi.art

ig: studio.leratoshadi

Nestled in a world where color dances with emotion, Lara Azul is a visionary artist whose work transcends the ordinary. Drawing inspiration from the beauty of everyday life and the whispers of nature, her pieces evoke a sense of wonder and introspection.

With a background in fine arts and a heart full of passion, Lara combines vibrant palettes with delicate textures to create immersive experiences. Each brushstroke tells a story, inviting viewers to explore their own narratives within her art.

Her journey is a tapestry woven with dreams, exploring themes of connection, identity, and the ephemeral moments that define us. Lara's work has been featured in local galleries and online exhibitions, resonating with those who seek beauty in the mundane.

Join her as she continues to create, inspire, and celebrate the art of living.

Alliothea

Nestled in a world where color dances with emotion, Lara Azul is a visionary artist whose work transcends the ordinary. Drawing inspiration from the beauty of everyday life and the whispers of nature, her pieces evoke a sense of wonder and introspection.

With a background in fine arts and a heart full of passion, Lara combines vibrant palettes with delicate textures to create immersive experiences. Each brushstroke tells a story, inviting viewers to explore their own narratives within her art.

Her journey is a tapestry woven with dreams, exploring themes of connection, identity, and the ephemeral moments that define us. Lara's work has been featured in local galleries and online exhibitions, resonating with those who seek beauty in the mundane.

'Am Anfang war das Feuer,
2012
170 x 140 x 60 cm
Backlit print, foil collage, c ardbord, lightbox and laquer varnish
Photo by Eric Tschernow

‘Am Anfang war das Feuer,
2012

170 x 140 x 60 cm

Backlit print, foil collage, cardboard, lightbox and laquer varnish

Photo by Eric Tschernow

Nestled in a world where color dances with emotion, Lara Azul is a visionary artist whose work transcends the ordinary. Drawing inspiration from the beauty of everyday life and the whispers of nature, her pieces evoke a sense of wonder and introspection.

With a background in fine arts and a heart full of passion, Lara combines vibrant palettes with delicate textures to create immersive experiences. Each brushstroke tells a story, inviting viewers to explore their own narratives within her art.

Her journey is a tapestry woven with dreams, exploring themes of connection, identity, and the ephemeral moments that define us. Lara’s work has been featured in local galleries and online exhibitions, resonating with those who seek beauty in the mundane.

'Am Anfang war das Feuer, 2012

170 x 140 x 60 cm

Backlit print, foil collage, cardboard, lightbox and laquer varnish

Photo by Eric Tschernow

Nestled in a world where color dances with emotion, Lara Azul is a visionary artist whose work transcends the ordinary. Drawing inspiration from the beauty of everyday life and the whispers of nature, her pieces evoke a sense of wonder and introspection.

With a background in fine arts and a heart full of passion, Lara combines vibrant palettes with delicate textures to create immersive experiences. Each brushstroke tells a story, inviting viewers to explore their own narratives within her art.

Her journey is a tapestry woven with dreams, exploring themes of connection, identity, and the ephemeral moments that define us. Lara's work has been featured in local galleries and online exhibitions, resonating with those who seek beauty in the mundane.

'Am Anfang war das Feuer, 2012

170 x 140 x 60 cm

Backlit print, foil collage, cardbord, lightbox and laquer varnish

Photo by Eric Tschernow

